

Leave XM alone! I'm so tired of you all at the FCC feeling the to prove your existence. I pay to listen to XM so I don't have to put up with the government butting their nose in and telling me what I can and can't listen to. So if the NAB doesn't like XM offering traffic and weather then maybe they need to take some pointers from XM and delete the commercials and play instant traffic 24 hours a day.